

THE ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE PROGRAM 2006 | t s # 14.

“The crickets and the rust-beetles scuttled among the nettles of the sage thicket. ‘Vamanos, amigos,’ he whispered, and threw the busted leather flintcraw over the loose weave of the saddlecock. And they rode on in the friscalating dusklight.”

Useful techniques for life.

This trip slip conveniently printed on fragrant green paper...ha, no, still white.

Today and/or tomorrows trip (depending on when you read this):

NEEDHAM RESERVOIR.

MMMM...DELICIOUS NEEDING OF HAM?

Informational Haikus {i5|7|5}:

Mountains are nearing.
These trips will get much longer.
Five-point-one miles far!

Think to what you've learned:
What factors are in effect?
Near Golf course? Others?

Needham Reservoir,
In many ways unnat'ral:
Trout stocked in the spring.

Many fisherman
'Cause MassWildlife intervenes.
The chutzpah pains me.

Weather.com predicts:

Monday,
July 24, 2006

p. cloudy
H77 / L65

I guess you can have your weather predictions back. Weather.com claims it will be partly cloudy highs in the mid-to upper-70's, lows in the mid-60's.

My conclusion: Bring your raingear and other stuff, as usual.

Remember that time that reading trip slips made you dizzy? Those days have gone and come again then gone again and now they back for a few minutes until you get dizzy and pass out and wake up at Needham Reservoir. This place is unique because it has never once ever been its own trip in the history of anti-sei. We will pioneer it

From places beyond. Look its an Ezra! I should have been obvious from the start and I for one nominate Ezra!
 Ezra is a mafia boss and I should have been obvious from the start and I for one nominate Ezra!

What the heck is up with this trip slip? I cant tell if up is down, or if right is left, of if Noah is mafia. Which he is, so we should all vote for him, also Ezra is mafia too and should be automatically killed off at the start of every round before he reveals me for what I truly am, your esteemed leader
